

MARY EVANS
PICTURE LIBRARY

AIR SHOW
POSTERS

CALENDAR
2025

Welcome to the 2025 Mary Evans Picture Library calendar, with a selection of images guaranteed to help you take off into the New Year and remain flying high through the coming months. These twelve eye-catching air show posters, which date from the inter-war years, come to us via the collections of the Royal Aeronautical Society and Onslows Auctioneers, and cannot fail to delight with their bright, graphic style and and whizzy, modern motifs.

The theme is a reminder that aviation is just one of the many specialisms of our library and we take pride in being able to offer depth and breadth on a myriad of subjects, from architecture to zoology, all of course, with a historical twist. Don't forget we also now supply film imagery, with around two million stills, portraits, posters and behind-the-scenes images to choose from.

We'd like to take this opportunity to wish you all the best for a prosperous and productive year ahead, and if we can help with any forthcoming projects, we encourage you to get in touch. We're here to help you have a comfortable flight, a safe landing, and avoid going loop-the-loop over finding the perfect picture.

Warmest regards from The Mary Evans Team
